

Safford retires from L.S. Fire

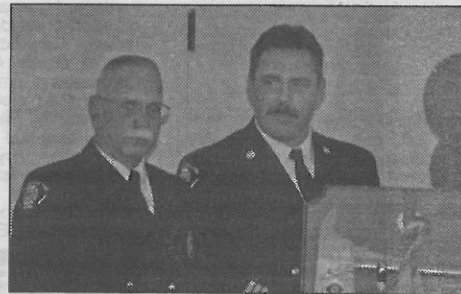

JOURNAL STAFF

The Lake Stevens Fire Department, friends and family gathered Friday, Sept. 23 for Dave Safford's retirement ceremony.

Safford has been a paramedic and firefighter for 34 years, 18 years spent with Snohomish County Fire District 8 in Lake Stevens.

Fire Chief Lingenfelter spoke about his time working alongside Safford. Fire Commissioner Dan Lorentzen and many others spoke about the time Safford spent as a firefighter and the great job he did serving the community.

It was clear that Safford, although ready for retirement, would miss the interaction with patients and his fellow firefighters.

Contributed Photo

Safford receives a plaque in honor of his time with the Lake Stevens Fire Department.

He was presented with a plaque to remember his time and accomplishments with the Lake Stevens Fire Department.