

It counts to win at Oktoberfest

JOURNAL STAFF

At the recent community Oktoberfest event the Lake Stevens School District hosted an "Estimation Booth," where elementary and secondary students had the opportunity to estimate how many items were in baskets and jars with winners receiving prizes.

Winners

Apple Basket (66)

Emmitt Felker, age 6, estimate 67 and Hunter, age 6, estimate 67 won a ride to school with a friend in a LS Fire Truck.

Pumpkin Basket (39)

Jorin Benson, age 9, estimate 39 and Laura Summers, age 5, estimate 39 won a ride to school with Randy Celori, Lake Stevens Chief of Police.

Jar of Candy Corn (404)

Spencer Raub, age 13, estimate 400 and Lincoln Rounds, age 4, estimate 400 won 10 open swim passes, 10 family swim passes, candy corn and M & M candy.

Jar of M & M Candy (585)

Carley Washburn, age 13, estimate 602 won three Viking Football T-Shirts.

Basket of bags of Carrots (4,264)

Emma Lund, age 8, estimate 3,445 won three Viking Football T-Shirts.

Thanks go to Lake Stevens Police Department, Lake Stevens Fire, Lake Stevens Pool, and Viking Football for supporting our Estimation Booth with fabulous prizes!

Photo by Pam Stevens

Kids guessed how many apples and pumpkins were in the baskets at the LSSD's booth at Oktoberfest.