

LS Fire announces Health & Safety Fair raffle winners

Contributed Photo

Thirty agencies participated in the 2011 Annual Health & Safety Fair.

JOURNAL STAFF

Lake Stevens Fire and Lake Stevens Police Department hosted their annual Health & Safety Fair in June which is free to the community. The mission of this event is to educate community members on health and safety tips for life.

Each year a new dimension is added to this event and this year free raffles were offered for both adults and youth.

Congratulations to the following raffle winners:

- Conference Center Raffle Winner Sierra Walker
 - Classroom Pizza Party with LSF and LSPD Raffle Winner Joey McKinney
 - Library Book As Always, Julia ~ Food, Friendship & the Making of a Masterpiece Raffle Winner Lyudmyla Jones
 - Library Book The Littles Raffle Winner Sandee Acevedo
 - Pet Pros Gift Basket Raffle Winner Jocelyn Galvan
- Communications Director Laana Larson commented, "Thank you to all 30 agencies who participated in the Health & Safety Fair this year. The investment of time and resources in our Lake Stevens community is greatly appreciated!"

Contributed Photo

Pet Pros Raffle Winner 002: Pet Pros Gift Basket Raffle Winner Jocelyn Galvan with LSF Public Educator Alison Caton.

Plans are for the Health & Safety Fair to return next year with additional free learning opportunities for our community.