

Lake Stevens Journal July 13, 2011

Stolen life jackets restocked at Wyatt Park, open for use

JOURNAL STAFF

The Safe Kids Snohomish County Wyatt Park Life Jacket Cabinet has been restocked with 25 life jackets and is now open for day use.

Thank you to the owner of the Main Street Center in Lake Stevens and Harbor Marine in Everett for their donations.

Remember to always follow these safety rules when swimming:

- Never swim alone.
- Life jackets are not babysitters; keep children within reach at all times.
- Life jacket size and weight must be correct for the person wearing it and must be a snug fit.
- All life jacket zippers and straps must be fastened.
- Inflatable water wings and tubes are not safety devices.